MRS. WANGLER'S MESSAGE

November 12th, 2025

Good afternoon, Parents!

Snow and a Buffalo Bills loss all on a Monday, eek! We did talk about winning and losing as a team and what we could get out of a loss. The students, especially the second and third graders, were on top of the lessons to learn when losing. I was impressed.

Our Veterans' Day Prayer Service went very well. This is another event that is a tradition at CTK. I was so happy to see all the veterans who could come and share time with us. Thank you for your service! Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. Wopperer, Mr. Butwin, and Parents' Guild for organizing our social after the Veterans' Day service. A special thank you goes out to Garrett who owns Mayer Bros. for donating the cider!

World Kindness Day is Thursday, November 13th. Ask your children how we celebrated. Students in the upper grades are writing essays. Students in the lower grades are making a poster about kindness! Then, Thursday afternoon, we will be sprinkled by kindness from the Parents' Guild with ice cream and sprinkles. Thank you!

On Sunday, November 23rd at 10:00 am, we will be having a school-wide Mass. I will be looking for readers, altar servers, gift bearers and students to attend mass on that Sunday. Consider Sundays at 10:00 am a great time to go to Mass every week!

*Report cards will be coming out the week of December 5th. Ask your child/children if they are caught up with work or need to focus the next few weeks on making up work, especially in middle school. "Keeping up" is your child's responsibility.

*Conferences are Thursday, December 4th and Friday, December 5th. I am available if you would like to stop in for a chat. Please make an appointment by emailing me at mwangler@myctkschool.com

Stay Warm and Be Kind!

Peace, Love and Prayers,

Mrs. Wangler
